IX. Non-Agenda Items –
- A. Travelstead noted we did not have a meeting schedule going beyond June and we should set a schedule. The July and January meetings normally would be delayed due to corresponding holidays, but since the holidays do not impede on the meetings on the normal first Wednesday of each month, the Council agreed to leave the July meeting scheduled on July 1 and the January meeting scheduled on January 6.

- J. Brant announced that she has decided on a retirement date effective March 1.
- C. Harvey asked if there was discussion regarding processes/guidelines for coming back to work. E. Cheek stated the task force discussing those guidelines should have a recommendation by mid-June.
- C. Harvey asked if there was discussion regarding future furloughs. A. Travelstead stated there has been no discussion as far as he is aware.
- C. Harvey asked if the buildings were being cleaned and sanitized, including carpet cleaning, while employees were not on campus. A. Travelstead stated buildings are being cleaned regularly. C. Green added Building Services is at a 50% workforce level and they are all cleaning and sanitizing buildings but carpets are not being cleaned to her knowledge. E. Cheek added the PSO website provides coronavirus pandemic custodial policy updates based on State guidelines. https://pso.siu.edu/covid19clean.php.
- A. Steen mentioned the Green Fund Grant awards have been issued and Woody Hall will be getting two new water bottle filling stations.
